The Daily Courant.

Monday, Auguſt 9. 1714

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 11.

Warſaw, July 13.

THE Nobility of Ruſſia wrote ſome Days ago a very preſſing Letter to the Primate, in which they continued their Complaints of the long Stay of the Saxon Troops, who having no Regard to the Liberties and Privileges of the Clergy and Nobility, ruine them by exceſſive Contributions, which amount to more than five Millions in Ruſſia only, and to more than 20 in the other Palatinates of the Kingdom. They deſire him to make uſe of his Authority to oblige the King of Poland to make them Retribution, and to recall his Troops; and if he cannot obtain this, they urge him to ſummon a Diet, or a great Council of all the Palatinates; they being determined to maintain the Liberties of their native Country. They add, that being informed the Pope has given a Conſiderable Sum towards the Payment of the Army and for keeping in Repair the Fortreſs of Caminiek, they deſire him to act in ſuch Manner, as that an Eccleſiaſtical Commiſſioner may have the Diſpoſition of that Money according to Cuſtom, to prevent its being applied to other Uſes. Count Denhof Vice-Chancellor of Lithuania, is returned from Dreſden, with an Order to General Janus to cauſe 8 Regiments of Saxon Horſe and 6 of Foot to march out of Poland; which ſomewhat calmed the Minds of the incenſed Nobility: But they are informed, that like Orders are not ſent to the Saxon Troops which are in Lithuania; and that the King has newly ordered 3 of his Regiments which are in Saxony to march towards Poland. The King of Sweden continued the 18th of June at Demir-Tocca, whence he was preparing to depart aſſoon as he ſhould have received an Anſwer to a Letter which he had written on that Subject to the Grand Signior: But it was not known whether he would take his Way home through Poland, or through Hungary and the Emperour's hereditary Countries.

Falmouth, Aug. 3. This Afternoon arrived the Expedition Packet-Boat, in nine Days from Lisbon. Great Preparations were made there for a Bull Feaſt againſt the time the young Prince is to be chriſtened; he is to have the King of France for one of his Godfathers, whoſe Ambaſſador had been arrived three Weeks, but without the neceſſary Powers to repreſent the King his Maſter at that Solemnity, but the ſame were every Day expected. The Dutch and French Mails do now arrive at Lisbon every Week very regularly.

Celcheſter, Aug. 5. This Day our Mayor, attended with the High-Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants and Common-Council of this Borough, together with the Clergy, Gentry, and a great Number of the principal Inhabitants of the Town, did (according to uſual Form, at the Mooth Hall, on a publick Stage erected for that purpoſe) publiſh and proclaim, the High and Mighty Prince George Elector of Brunſwick-Lunenburg, to be Rightful and Lawful King of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland. From whence, after having drank His Majeſty's with many other Loyal Healths, they proceeded to proclaim him a ſecond time on the Dutch Bay-hall, where they were received by the Governours of the Society, and plentifully entertained, and from the Gallery of the ſaid Hall the Gutters ran with Wine all the time. The whole was attended with the loud Acclamations of the People, crying Long Live King George. The Evening concluded with ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonſtrations of Joy: To compleat which, Sir Iſaac Rebow our High-Steward, diſtributed to drink King George's Health, to the value of four Hogſheads of Wine.

Yeſterday arrived the Mail due from France.

From the Paris Letter, dated Aug. 13.

Paris, Aug. 13. Letters from the Camp before Barcelona of the 27th of July adviſe, that on that Day a Body of 4 or 500 Miquelets or Volunteers came and attacked that Camp in the Rear, but were vigorouſly repulſed, with conſiderable Loſs of Men killed or taken Priſoners. Monſieur Orry left 5 Millions in the Camp when he went back to Madrid, whence he is returning with a larger Sum. There are Letters of the 30th, which ſay the Beſieged in Barcelona had not made any Attempt to re-gain the Covered-Way. 'Tis adviſed from Nancy the 7th Inſtant, that the Princeſs of Vaudemont died at Commercy the 5th of an Apoplexy. We had an Account Yeſterday, by an Expreſs from London, that the Queen of Great-Britain has had a Fit of Apoplexy, &c.

It teaches Persons to cure themselves without Slip-Slops of Physick, Suspition, Confinement, or telling their Case to any one; therefore fetch it or send for it, 'twill cost you nothing but asking for, and is worth any ones reading, who either ever were, are now, or are like to be in any Venereal Circumstances whatsoever, and with their own and Posterities Welfare.

The famous Plaister for the Stomach, which in-fallibly cures all sorts of Agues in 24 Hours, and without any other Physick, now esteemed and recommended by the most knowing Physicians, as the best and most infallible Remedy for curing Agues that ever was found out; in many Thousand Experiments it has not once failed, most of the Agues that were cured last Year were cured by it. Is now sold only at Mr. Bell's, a Bookseller, at the Cross Keys and Bible in Cornhill, near Stocks-Market, at 2 s. the Gallypot, with Directions. At the same Place is also sold the most excellent Plaister for Corns, being the only infallible one in the World for giving present Ease, and taking them quite away. Price 1 s. with Directions.

Dr. Stoughton's Great Cordial Elixir for all In-dispositions of the Stomach and Blood, the only Specifick for the Scurvy, and all its Attendants, that ever was made, now famous throughout Europe, and sold in most Cities and great Towns thereof by some one Merchant or Trader. 'Tis the greatest Preservative from infectious Air or contagious Diseases in the World, keeping the Body in a due State of Health and Vigour, raising the Spirits, when low and depressed, as hath been largely experienced in the West-Indies some time ago, and lately in Sweden, where it was observed that hardly any one who took it had the Disease, and few now travel by Land or Sea without it. 'Tis not purging, but cordial only, the best and most agreeable Bitter in the World, and most Gentlemen drink it in Wine instead of any other, Ladies in Tea, and others in Beer, Ale, &c. Prepared only by him at his House in Bartholomew-lane, near the Royal Exchange, London, having obtained her Majesty's most gracious Letters Patents for the sole making thereof. Those Merchants, Captains of Ships, and others, who will send or take with them any considerable Quantity abroad, shall have Room for large Profit, it selling at a good Price, is well known, and highly esteemed of in most Places of Europe. It is so great a Cleanser of the Blood, that hundreds have been cured of Agues and Cholicks by this Elixir only, taken as the Bills direct, which are now in French, Dutch and Spanish, as well as English: And 'tis desired they may be carefully read over and observed.

The Vapours in Women infallibly Cured in an Instant, so as never to return again, by an admirable Chymical Secret, a few drops of which takes off a Fit in a Moment, dispels Sadness, clears the Head, takes away all Swimming, Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, Flushings in the Face, &c. to a Miracle, and most certainly prevents the Vapours returning again, for by Rooting out the very Cause, it perfectly cures, as Hundreds have experienc'd: It also strengthens the Stomach and Bowels, and causes Liveliness and settled Health. Is sold only at Mrs. Osborn's, Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions. Beware of Counterfeits at other Places.
